

Research Fact Sheets Series

Fact Sheet

Glossary

Affect: to make a change in something.

Characteristics: a distinctive thing about a group or individual. (For example: a woman with red hair, red hair is one of her characteristics).

Collaboration: Working with others on a shared project.

Demonstrate: To describe or explain something by providing an example.

Engage: To get involved.

Ethically: accept the principles of right and wrong that are outlined in guidelines that dictate how research is done.

Focuses: gives attention to.

Influence: having the ability to have an effect on the actions of a person, group of people, organization or government.

Occurrence: Something that happens, an event or incident.

Policy: A set of guidelines that outline the ways in which government, services, organizations, etc. are organized.

Principles: A guiding set of beliefs that guide how we act.

Sector: a specific part of our society that has a shared interest.

If you need any help to read or understand this document please ask someone for support. You can also call or email the Centre for Inclusion and Citizenship to ask questions.

Email: cic.ubc@ubc.ca
Telephone: (604) 822-5872
Website: cic.arts.ubc.ca

a place of mind

CENTRE FOR INCLUSION AND CITIZENSHIP